

Jeremiah 31:15-25

Decorations are more than ...

The weeping of Ramah is real.

“A voice is heard in Ramah, mourning and great weeping, Rachel weeping for her children and refusing to be comforted” - Jer. 31:15

Hope is portrayed as ...

“When I bring them back from captivity, the people in the land of Judah and in its towns will once again use these words: ‘The LORD bless you, O righteous dwelling, O sacred mountain.’

People will live together in Judah and all its towns—farmers and those who move about with their flocks.” - Jer. 31:23, 24

1. Hope has its source in ...

“Is not Ephraim my dear son, the child in whom I delight? Though I often speak against him; I still remember him. Therefore my heart yearns for him; I have great compassion for him,” declares the Lord. - Jer. 31:20

2. Hope enters our world through ...

“The Lord will create a new thing on earth — a woman will surround a man.” - Jer. 31:22

3. Hope is seen ...

“Set up road signs; put up guideposts. Take note of the highway, the road that you take.” - Jer. 31:21
